the new policy conducted in East Germany became evident in the following measures taken in the district of Salzwedel prior to 14 June 1953:

(1). Farmers who were released from prison on account of the recent amnesty were restored their property including machinery and farm tools, if possible;

(2). farmers expelled from the 5-kilometer restricted zone along the zonal border may return to their farms;

(3). the signboard of the Kreis registration board at the former land registry office on Goethestrasse was removed.
